

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

September 19, 2003

This week

Our Special Guest today is Janet Sederquist, new Executive Director of the Oxnard Convention & Visitors Bureau. Janet will be here to fill us in on the activities of the Bureau and how they can help all of us make Oxnard more successful.

Next week

It should be open.

Last week

Chris King, recently retired with the U.S. Customs Service, swapped tales of U.S. Customs agents, including stories of naked women and hiding places for contraband for women. Needless to say, this club found it titillating.

Ramblings from Ross

This will be the second of three "readings" of the proposed change in the position of Secretary/Treasurer in the Noon-timers, or at least to allow a vote on the matter. Lion Carl has assured that he will help with the turnover to Lions Rick Smith and Toby Scott, if the members vote in favor of this change. The vote will take place next week, after the third reading of the plan.

We had a great visitation with the Ventura Downtowners yesterday. Thanks to Lion Rick for making the arrangements. These visits are fun. Give them a try.

Lion George Thompson, who is, as often happens, in Thailand right now, says all is set for the Cancer Walk tomorrow. Lion Pat Riggs is bringing the cooker, Lion Jim Bickel is bringing the dogs, and volunteers will man the site.

Next up, the BBQ at Lion George's manor on the 28th. How much will this cost? We have no idea, but it'll all work out.

Winners

Lion 1VP Will BERG has Free Fines, while Lion D Mike PLISKY is our Greeter.

Lion D Otto SCHIMMEL pocketed his $5 Attendance Prize, so Lion 1VP Will BERG will get 5 fine free dollars if he makes it today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey Lion Loyal FRAZIER missed his shot at $238.50.

Visitation Report

Lions RC Rick SMITH, D Mike PLISKY, 2VP Dennis AMICK, C Andy STAY, P Ross OLNEY, D Bedford PINKARD, BE Toby SCOTT and prospective new member Hal WASSERMAN all managed to invade the Ventura Downtown Lions Club yesterday. We had a great time, stole their bell (actually, the bell belongs to Pleasant Valley, but Ventura was using it as theft-bait), insulted a few Lions and generally behaved like Noontimers. Lion PDG Diane Van Trees cannot be allowed to insult us like she did by claiming that we were "Well behaved." Never happened.

When Ventura found out that we didn't have any applications to give to prospective

Lion Hal, they offered him one on the spot — for their club. They will stop at nothing.

Fortunately, prospective Lion Hal has standards — and Ventura is way too high.

Lion Rick also visited the Channel Islands Lions Tuesday where Lion DG George STEWART presented Lion P Scott Feland with his Melvin Jones Fellow plaque.
