Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

Volume 50, Issue 32

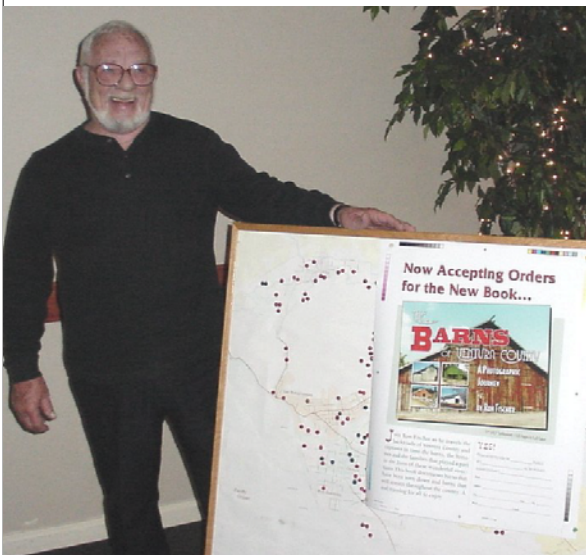

April 23, 2004

This week

Our Special Guest today is Carlotte Poe from 'Free Thinkers of Ventura County,' who will conduct an 'Ask the Atheist' program today.

Next week

It's an open meeting. However, we may have an installation of new member, Lion Hal WASSERMAN, as long as no one is bothered that several members will be at the District Convention, including Lion Hal's sponsor, Lion RC/S Rick SMITH. Actually, since Lion Hal does taxes for a living, he hasn't made it to a meeting in quite a while, either.

Last week

Ron Fisher, (the Pop Corn Man), has been documenting the barns of Ventura county for a while and is set to release his new book: "Barns of Ventura County."

Obviously, barns in the county have been disappearing at a high rate, because nearly every other picture he said, "This barn was demolished a week after I took this picture."

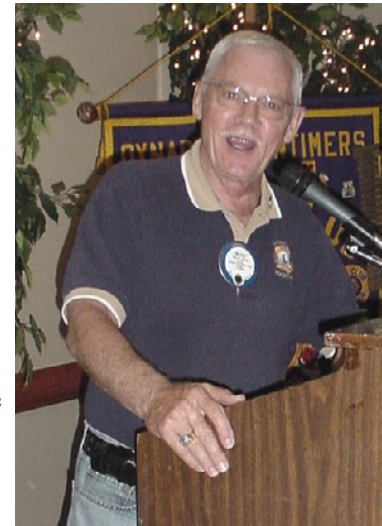

Fascinating program. Who knew there were so many old and interesting barns around?

Ramblings from Ross

Here's another reminder to mark June 11 on your calendar so you won't miss the gala Noontimer's installation ceremony, relieving me of further duties up front and honoring incoming president Will Berg. These parties are fun, as those of you who have attended know. This one will be on a "cowboy" theme, so get out the ten-gallon hats, the fancy shirts, the Levi's and the boots (if you have them). If you don't, no matter. Wear slacks and tennis shoes.

But be here at the Residence Inn at around 6:30 in the evening on that Friday. There'll be a western band, great food, and funny, but clean enough Code One stories. So you can bring your cowgirl along.

See you on Friday, June 11.

Winners

Lion D Pat RIGGS has Free Fines today, while Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT is our Greeter for the second week in a row. Lion Jim BICKEL wasn't here so he doesn't qualify for the $15 Attendance Prize. In the Mad

Marble Malarkey, Lion Toby tried to finish a rare double-win, but came up short in his attempt to pocket $543.50.

Elections

We have now run the slate of officers for the fourth week. We are required to run them for three. We can hold the election any time someone decides to get on the stick.
