This week

Our Special Guest today cancelled, so Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT will be filling in with his stirring rendition of, "The End of Telephony As We Know It." Good thing no one had advance notice or he'd be speaking alone.

Next week

Craig Schmitman, founder of HaveBlue LLC will discuss his companies pioneering utilization of fuel cell technology.

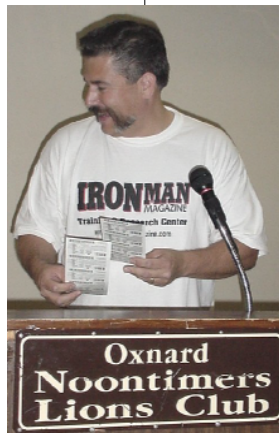

Last week

Lion 2VP Otto SCHIMMEL decided to go public with his short career as a political career-killer. Listening to his calm recitation of events, one wonders how calm he was while the events were taking place.

Whispers from Will

Well say hey Lions! Lion Byron has our Dodger tickets in hand! We're set for Tuesday September 14th. For those who chose not to take part, eat your hearts out. The Dodgers will be hosting 2nd place San Diego. This should be a very important series whereby the newly invigorated Dodgers cap their drive for the National League West title. Lion Byron says these are the best seat locations he's received this season to boot. There still may be one ticket available, ask if you're interested.

On another note, Lion Irv mentioned we're only $100 short in our City of Hope drive. With just another $100 before the end of the year we will get a tile in our name in the City of Hope's patio. So please Lions, let's get a little more generous with the City of Hope collection Jar. We have a visitation coming up to the Pleasant Valley Lions club scheduled for August 23rd. Come on now we need at least four bodies. And lastly, I should remind everybody that Lion 1st VP Dennis will be sitting in my seat for the next two luncheon meetings as well as this month's Bored meeting on the 25th. I've been unavoidably called out of town on important business.

Winners

Lion Dennis AMICK has Free Fines, while Lion Dave MIGOCKI is our Greeter. Lion Michael KURLAND pocketed his $15 Attendance Prize, so Lion IPP Ross OLNEY will only miss $5 if he doesn't show today (he said he would be out of town today). In the Mad Marble Malarkey, lightning didn't strike twice and Lion D Mike PLISKY didn't win for the second time in a month, thus missing out on another $143.50.

Visitation

Last night, Lions P Will BERG, RC/S Rick SMITH (along with his wife, Mary), Pat RIGGS, Michael KURLAND and BE/T Toby SCOTT ventured over to the El Rio Lions. Food was great, drinks plentiful and company warm and inviting. Lion Toby stole their gavel, but should have purloined the bell while he was at it.

Our Zone Chairman

Lion ZC Rick SMITH ventured out to the Pleasant Valley Lions club to hear the visitors to the Simi Valley Lions club speak. Sure. Take a look at the exchange students and it's a wonder Lion Rick ever made it back. And if his wife, Mary, sees these pictures, he will never make it back.

Fair parking

If you have time, please head over to the fair and see if they need help parking cars. They almost always do and our club will pick up a fair amount of money for your help. New Lion Dave MIGOCKI already did a stint. You can, too.
