This week

Once again, if we have a speaker, your BE is unaware of whom it might be.

Next week

Ditto.

Last Week

We had 6 guests, but only 4 of them were human. Lions Rich Cervantes and Greg Steinmetz, along with Lion Greg's seeing-eye dog, Cash, joined Annette Boren and her seeing-eye dog-in-training, Connor, along with another woman who was not introduced.

Lion Greg lost his sight to retinitis pigmentosa, but that hasn't slowed him down much. He'll be president of the Big Red One next year (starting in a month). Annette is raising Connor to be a seeing-eye dog. She needs to take the dog out to learn to be sociable and not get rambunctious in the company of a lot of people. Excellent program.

Winners

Lion P Ross OLNEY has Free Fines, while Lion Otto SCHIMMEL is our Greeter. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER was here when his name was called for the $10 Attendance Prize, but he said he wouldn't be here to collect it. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Pat OROZCO took aim at $235.50, but he's a rookie and had no luck.

Polling Duties

Get ready. We are manning the polls on Tuesday. Hopefully, everyone signed up and will show up. We need about 6 people at all times. The club does get paid for this, so it's a fundraiser for our Admin account, which is pretty low now. We need the money.

Bored Meeting

Your BE was unable to attend and received no report.

Big Project

At last we did something. Lion Dave TAPIE arranged for us to pay for repairing a plumbing problem so severe that the woman was forced out of her house by the building inspector. She was a Viet Nam-era veteran nurse who is on dialysis and in poor health as well as poor fiscal health. Lion Dave arranged for Rick Gaumer to volunteer to do the plumbing as long as we helped out. It appears as though only Lion Dave helped. He sent pictures, so you can see what they were dealing with.
