Lion District Governor Margaret Dunlevy will be here to induct new Lion Pat (the Third) O'Brien, whose application was approved at the last Bored meeting despite the well-known fact that Noontimers cannot count higher than two and having a third "Pat" in the club was a recipe for disaster. Things were worked out when new Lion Pat agreed to be called "Lion Hey You."

It is apparently open.

Tom Volk, former Oxnard Harbor Director, stopped by to plug his book and slow slides (yes, slides, not PowerPoint) of the early days of the harbor. Lots of memories for old-timers, something to learn for the newbies. Interesting program.

Lion TT Jim PLISKY has Free Fines for the second week in a row. Must be a plot to increase fine money since the TT doesn't pay fines, anyway. Lion BE Toby SCOTT is our Greeter. Lucky us. Lion IVP Timur TALUY had his number pulled for the Attendance Prize and he was here. However, the BE and T have a discrepancy as to how much he should get. The T is planning on giving him $30, while the BE thinks it should be $35. Since the BE has no money, it'll probably be $30. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion S Jeff NORRIS was so pissed off he didn't win the $156.50 that when he wrote down the loser to give to the BE, the name looked like "JISN loct" — thank goodness the BE takes notes of his own.

You may notice that we are recycling old photos. That's because Lion IPP Ross OLNEY, who usually takes the photos that appear in the Bulletin, is away. If any Noontimers is willing to take photos today and email them to the BE (email address in header of this Bulletin), some of us would be everlastingly grateful. Lots of photos makes it possible to avoid having your BE writing two pages of deadly prose.
