This week

Our Special Guest today is Bonnie Weigel from Food Share. Bonnie and Food Share have been a huge help to us over the years. We should probably do another phone calling session for them. Whatever Bonnie want's we need to do.

Next week

Who knows?

Last Week

Peggi Preston and Jan Rednoti from the Special Olympics Ventura County dropped by for a short visit. They spoke at the beginning of the meeting to thank us for our continuing support, and then left to fix a copier.

Winners

Lion D Bedford PINKARD has Free Fines while Lion EC John FARRAR is our Greeter. Lion Rick

SMITH wasn't here to qualify for the $20 Attendance Prize, so we'll draw for $25 today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Byron WEDEMEYER had no chance at $176.50 — Lion Carlos MARTINEZ said so.

Health Fair

We came, we saw, we served. Lions processed about 500 people and fitted a large number of glasses (don't have final count yet). Thanks to Lions P Roman VAISMAN, MC Patrick OROZCO, Byron WEDEMEYER, D Bedford PINKARD, S Jeff NORRIS, EC John FARRAR and BE Toby SCOTT who all showed up and helped out.

Leadership Forum

It is tomorrow. Anyone going? Lions provide really excellent leadership training at an extremely reasonable price. Pick the brains of Lion Past International President Sid Scruggs and many other notables.

If you can't make this one, there is another January 18-20. It really does help.

Challenger Football

We will be cooking hotdogs and hamburgers for lunch for Challenger Football at Hueneme High School on November 10 from about 10:30 to around 2 for clean-up. If you haven't attended Challenger Football in the past, it is a blast. Kids in wheelchairs do end-runs, go out for passes, and generally imitate their more capable brethren. If you watch them and don't have wet eyes, check your pulse.
