This week

As far as your BE knows, we have no program.

Next week

No one scheduled yet, but Lion P Roman VAIS-MAN promises he'll have someone.

Last Week

Lions Bill GREEN and 2VP Patrick OROZCO presented a potential fundraiser that promises to be a ton of fun — to sponsor a car in the LeMons 24 Hour Event.

But only if we can secure adequate insurance protection. Several of our attorney members were a bit reluctant because of the threat of lawsuit should something go wrong. We are working it.

Winners

Lion T Tim TENOPIR has Free Fines, while Lion Bill GREEN is our Greeter. Lion 1VP Timur TALUY wasn't here to qualify for the $5 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Carlos MARTINEZ took aim at $110 but before he realized he had the winning ticket, he yelled, "LLLOOOOZZZEEERRR" and was an excellent prophet.

Candidates for Next Year's Officers

What a useless brouhaha! We are going to hold the election next week, and this bulletin is your notice that the election is going to take place. Here is the slate of officers. The bylaws prohibit write-ins, so no matter who shows up to vote, these are going to be the winners. Why did the Noontimers pick this time to get serious about the bylaws? We regularly violate 50% of our bylaws, sometimes when it could actually make a difference. But this one, that cannot possibly make a difference was the occasion for dozens of email.

City of Hope

No Noontimer went to the City of Home Lions Appreciation Day, but the Noontimers were recognized anyway. We have donated the seventh most money of any Lions Club in the state of California. How about that? When Lion John FARRAR passes around the donation can with the feeble jokes, please keep giving. It goes to a great cause and they really appreciate it — even if they can't spell "Noontimers."
