Last Week

Lt. Jesse Rond from Naval Base Ventura County dropped by to talk. He is the son of Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS' wrestling coach. Jesse has had a number of fascinating positions, including working with the Navies of our allies to improve close combat operations. Interesting talk with lots of questions. Good guy.

Winners

Lion BE Toby SCOTT has Free Fines today, while Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS is our Greeter. No big deal, Lion Todd usually says "Hello" to all. Lion Dave TAPIE was here to qualify for the $25 Attendance Prize, so he'll collect if he shows today. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER had been here the week before to qualify for last week's Attendance Prize, but he didn't show on time and left early. Oh well. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Otto SCHIMMEL attempted to pluck the magic orb to win $213.50, but unfortunately had Lion Carlos disease: "LLLOOOOZZEERR."

This week

It's the last Friday of the month and we know that all Noontimers have pulled together the very best jokes they have in their closet. Hopefully, the rest of us will find them funny.

Next week

Your BE knows of no program yet.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day is cancelled. At the Bored meeting, no one wanted to bother creating an event for women and so there is no program for spouses, girlfriends and other assorted female guests.

Student Speakers

We will hold our student speakers contest on February 18. The students are the program, so please don't try to schedule anyone for this date.

Cabinet Meeting

The third Cabinet Meeting of the Lion year will be held February 19-20 in Santa Maria. At the Bored meeting, there was some discussion about a couple of members going. Could it be???
