Our Special Guest today is Carla Castilla, candidate for County Supervisor for 3rd District. With the election Tuesday, she almost ran out of time. Glad to have her as the final of three candidates who spoke.

Next week

Jim Estombo, a Board Member on the Channel Islands Beach Community Services District will be here to talk about the harbor.

Last Week

We had an embarrassment of riches: Two speakers. Mohammed Hasan talked about radical Islam. Got lots of questions and comments. Too bad we didn't have more time.

Next up was Jesus Torres, candidate for 3rd District, County Supervisor. He seemed like a good candidate, experienced in both government and non-profits.

Winners

Lion T Tim TENOPIR has Free Fines, while Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS is our Greeter. He usually greets

most of us anyway, so it should be one of the better greet-jobs in recent memory. Most recent greeters have flaked.

Lion Sig ASKVIK wasn't here (surprise!) so he didn't qualify for the $5 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, there isn't enough money to get anyone excited. Still, with $166.50, one would expect that our Secretary, Lion Jeff NORRIS, would have at least listed the poor schmuck who got the colored marble. Apparently, it was too insignificant to memorialize. Whomever you are, you now know where you stand.

Elections

We will be manning the election site at the Coast Guard building, 4202 Victoria Ave. across from the harbor. Please show up when your time comes. We need a full complement of workers. If you have extra time, it would be appreciated if you'd drop in.

Food Handling Class

We are going to need several Noon-timers certified as food handlers so we can serve food at the Salsa and Banana Festivals. Here is the next dates, all from 9—Noon:

July 7
August 3
September 7

Reserve a place by calling Sue Seiler at 654-2909 or by email: susan.seiler@ventura.org

Kicked Out Again

The Dallas Cowboys will be here and preempt 4 of our meetings: July 29 and August 5, 12 and 19.
