Our Special Guest today is Manuel Munoz, publisher and owner of the bilingual weekly Vida Newspaper, will talk about the success and challenges of his newspaper, one of the last remaining locally published newspapers in Ventura County.

Next week

Next week is an evening meeting. We have no speaker signed up. We need to discuss if we want to make the evening meetings the traditional open meeting as they are the last Friday of the month, or if we want to schedule something special for our invited guests.

In either case, be sure to invite potential members.

Last Week

David Maron, with the Ventura Civic Alliance, unloaded a ton of fascinating information about our county. The Alliance's bi-annual statistical abstract of the county numbers for just about everything is really great to have. He had enough copies for everyone. Very nice.

Winners

Our guest speaker, Dave Maron, won Free Fines, so if he shows today, we can't fine him. Lion BE Toby SCOTT is our Greeter. Whomever is #1 on the attendance sheet (at a guess that would be Lion Sig AS-KVIK) will have won the Attendance Prize for an indeterminate amount of money. Our Treasurer, Lion Tim TENOPIR, has to get back in town to figure out winners and losers while he was gone.

In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion P Pat RIGGS took aim at

Installation of Officers

This year we are doing something completely different for our installation. In honor of the 100th year of Lionism, we are having a county-wide installation at the Camarillo Air Museum on June 10. Cost will be about what we have paid for installations in the past, so your dues cover one attendee. Spouses and guest will run another $50.

This should be a huge, fun event. Please plan on attending.

We need a attendee count, meal choices and a check from the Treasurer to reserve a spot. It's going to be a great event. We have about 194 paid attendees so far.
