Our Special Guest today is Chris Ryan of Chris Ryan Photography. Chris is the official conservation photographer for the Rancho Ventura Conservation. He specializes in adventure and conservation photography and a quick review of his website says we are in for a treat.

Nothing planned yet.

William Ayub, candidate for Ventura County Sheriff, decided that while there weren't many of us, we are community leaders and he was really happy to talk to us. Had him fooled, didn't we?

He appears to have most of the support from the law enforcement infrastructure. Seemed like a dedicated guy.

Winners

Noontimers are nothing if not creative. We had borderline enough people to hold a raffle, so we just had the Mad Marble Malarkey. With no Treasurer in attendance, we have no idea how much Lion IPP Pat RIGGS lost by grabbing the wrong orb, but nonetheless, he lost. We couldn't hold the Attendance Prize because no Secretary or Treasurer was in attendance to tell us who the member was when we drew a number.

Strawberry Festival

We will be serving hot links at the Strawberry Festival May 19—20. If hot links work out for the Strawberry Festival, we can do the same thing for the Salsa Festival.

So far, we have only three people who have passed food handling. That won't be enough to get through two full days. So, please a few more sign up for one of the next two classes.

The food handling classes are scheduled for the first Wednesday of each month at the Government Center, 800 S. Victoria, Room 344 (third floor), from 9 AM to Noon. Warning: the doors close at exactly 9 AM. If you arrive at 9:01 you won't get in. Be early. Here are the dates:

April 4
May 2
