This week

Our Special Guest today is Ken Gesch, volunteer and spokesperson for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. He will be talking about suicide prevention.

Next Week

Who knows?

Last Week

Four very well-prepared speakers competed on the very difficult topic of: "Homelessness in California: What is the Solution?" The winner, Marisa Jones, will be competing at the Camarillo Boys & Girls club at 1:30 on March 14. It would be nice to have some Noontimers there to support her.

Winners

We haven't had a drawing for three weeks, first we forgot, then we never have one on Valentines Day or Student Speakers contest.

Election Training

The training schedule is still at www.noontimers.org/bulletin where there's a link for download or viewing. We do need to have as many trained workers as possible.

Please do plan on helping as it takes a lot of manpower to handle two different precincts from 7 AM to 8 PM. Even only being available for a couple of hours helps out.

Strawberry Festival

Save the dates, May 16 & 17 for the Strawberry Festival. Lion P George THOMPSON is working on the recipe and we need to make sure we can get bananas (Lion Will BERG isn't at the Port anymore and is unsure if he can help), so there is a lot to do. If you want to help with planning, please let Lion George know.

Lion 2VP Rick GUTIERREZ took pictures again last week.
