

The Lions Din

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

Volume 52, Issue 35

January 24, 2003

This week

Our Special Guest today is Andres Sanchez, who ran as a write in candidate for Mayor of Oxnard, and may be readying himself for a more serious try next election. You've all heard the expression "Vote early and vote often," but "Run early and run often???"

The more important question is why would anyone do such a silly thing? If he gets any crazier than this, he'll have to become a Noontimer.

Next week

Open meeting. Hopefully, you'll all have your best jokes ready.

Last week

Jill Vinson, Special Agent from the FBI's Violent Crimes Task Force, decided it was about time the Noontimers learned about violent crime. Since the FBI doesn't get involved unless the damages are $100,000 she sure wasn't here to investigate any Noontimers. We may be violent, but we sure aren't earning that kind of money doing so.

Musings from Maggio

Thanks to Lion Todd the Bored Meeting will be held at The California Lighthouse, Ventura Road and 9th Street. The Address is 1158 Oyster Place. The gate Code number is xxx. Lion Carl will call each Bored Member with directions. This will be the first meeting of the year and all Bored members are requested to attend.

Thanks to Lion Will for heading up the Noontimers effort to participate in the Strawberry Festival in May. This event has the potential of raising significant funds for our club charities. Our goal is to have a beer booth at the event. However we must first qualify, then win a lottery to secure a booth. Lion Will needs your help to insure a successful event.

Lion Sig assisted by Lion Dave are working to schedule a club trip to the Magic Castle in early Spring. The event will also include dinner. Partners and guests will be included.

Lions District 4A3 Convention will be held May 2,3,4 in Laughlin, NV. Each Lion is responsible for his own reservation. Call 1 (800) 243 6846 and tell the clerk the contract number is 7778. Room prices are $15 for the first night then $35, and $45 for the next two nights.

Winners

Lion D George THOMPSON has Free Fines, while Lion Jim BICKEL is our Greeter. Do we get fries with that??? Lion D Mike PLISKY picked up his $5 Attendance Prize last week, so Lion Bedford PINKARD will only receive $5 if he shows today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion 1VP Ross OLNEY managed to bag the $273.50 prize by picking the white marble. Can you say, "Fix?" I knew you could.

Visit the webpage

Your Webmaster wants to thank you for looking at his hard work on the webpage, www.noontimers.org The response has been overwhelming. We have been inundated by your reply.

Our new addition for the week is that we now have a copy of every Lions Din (that's this publication for those of you who don't check such things) published this year online.

You will be able to look up programs for the next month or so, read past bulletins and check out the latest news on our pages.

Be there or be square.
