This week

Our Special Guest Chris King, recently retired with the U.S. Customs Service, will be here to talk about customs, smuggling and terrorists. Chris got his start in the customs service pushing back people across the border at San Ysidro. He then moved on to the Port of LA, LAX and finally ending his long 30 year illustrious career at our very own Port of Hueneme. Does he know where we can get some good Cuban cigars?

Last week

Patti Longo Spoke on how best to put our seniors out to pasture. Lots of sunshine and green grass was the prescription for the day. Also Lion Bedford PINKARD brought two guests that are planning on making a movie in Oxnard about getting "jacked".

After the meeting I think felt a little "jacked" themselves.

Next week

We will be graced by Janet Seder-quist of the Oxnard Visitors & Conventions bureau. 1st VP Wil said something about a little yellow Volkswagen. I'm sure we'll find out what Oxnard's doing to bring in people with lots of money to spend.

Ramblings from Ross

It is my hope that with this being the third rambling in a row, your BE will be more kind to me. In fact, he can expect them every Friday from now on, such as they are.

Your Bored met this week, and actions were taken. We will, today, elect a new Secretary-Treasurer. The committee headed up by Lion Mike PLISKY, after going over the bids, recommended Lions Rick SMITH and Toby SCOTT take over, and Lion Carl BUTSON agrees. We'll explain this during the meeting. We will be holding an election on Sept. 26th after Publishing it 3 times according to Noontimer bylaws.

We are also going to continue to draw for a Greeter each week, although it was suggested we drop this feature. Instead, we're going back to the old way. If you "win" and if you serve by coming in early and greeting folks, you get your meal for nothing. If you don't, well, you don't.

A committee is now looking at whether or not we can bring a potential member-guest without charge. There has been some confusion on this point, but it will be straightened out.

So you see, your Bored does do something besides eat the great steaks and trimmings at Lion Todd REHANEK'S digs. Join us any time you wish. Good to be back with the Lions.

Winners

Lion Mike PLISKY has Free Fines. While our Greeter is Lion Dave TAPIES.COM.

Lets see if he gets his meal free today. (Does anyone know what going on in this picture? Lion Dave sure seems to be enjoying himself!) Lion Otto SCHWIMMILL was here when his name was called, so he'll enrich himself by a whole $5 if he shows today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Otto (Please don't make me spell his last name again) missed his shot at $229.50.

(From the Editor: I hope Toby isn't too upset about how the bulletin was done this week.)

OH I WILL BE!
