This week

Hopefully, Lion IVP Will BERG has everything working smoothly and this will be an open meeting.

Next week

Ms. Carel Ahlefeld, Treasurer and founding member for 'Concerned People for Animals' will be here to talk about animals and concerned people.

Last week

Janet Sederquist, new Executive Director of the Oxnard Convention & Visitors Bureau, decided that one year was long enough and that she just had to have some severe abuse in her life. So she volunteered to visit us.

Unlike the Noontimers, the OCBV is doing a great job and Oxnard is hosting a lot of conventions and events. Their harbor progressive dinner sounds like a fabulous idea.

Ramblings from Ross

Are we gonna have a ball at Lion George Thompson's estate this Sunday? You better believe we are. It'll be our annual fun-filled BBQ, and I expect many will arrive with a swimsuit (George has both a pool and a whirlpool in his lower yard). Even though the pool is sheltered, there is no truth to the story going around that nude swimming will be in vogue. It's at 1:00 this Sunday afternoon. Ask for directions at the meeting.

This is the third and final "reading" of the change in the secretary and treasurer position. The Chairman of the search, Lion Mike Plisky, will give you a ballot and then he'll collect them and count them during the meeting.

Don't forget to sign up for Lion Pat Riggs' White Cane event (October 3-4) and the manning of the polling place on October 7. No, we cannot change the votes once they are handed over. That rumor is just wishful thinking.

Winners

Lion IVP Will BERG has Free Fines, while Lion Dave "Pegleg" GOSNELL is our Greeter. Lion Will picked up his $5 Attendance Prize, so Lion Richard MOWLES only missed $5 by not being here. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Carlos MARTINEZ missed his shot at $248, much to the disappointment of the rest of the Noontimers. Had he won, we could have considered it his tip for the year.

Cancer Society Walk Report

We sold about 500 hot dogs and received $37 in tips at last Saturday's Cancer Walk. We also have 220 extra hot dogs for the Family BBQ at Lion George THOMPSON's this Sunday. Eat hearty.

Thanks to all who participated to make this an extremely successful event: Lions D Todd REHANEK, who got ice; Irv TUCKER who got juice; D Dave TAPIE, D Pat RIGGS, who cleaned up the cart and brought it, Jim BICKEL who got hot dogs, buns and condiments; Jeff NORRIS, who was cashier; D Mike PLISKY; Ralph SUTTON; and, of course, Lion George who organized everything while he was in Thailand. Hope we didn't forget anyone.

BBQ

Be sure to show up this Sunday at the Family BBQ at Lion George THOMPSON's house. We are going to have a feast. Lion George's wife, Toi, will be cooking up a collection of Thai dishes to tempt the jaded appetite: Chicken Satay with peanut sauce; hand-made kosher pork sausage; Panag chicken cooked in coconut milk; Thai Tempura and hot Thai spices (only for real men). And, of course, we'll have ice cream, hamburgers and 220 hot dogs.
