This week

Our Special Guest today is Rick Kline, detective of identity theft. He is going to talk about how scam artists assume our identities and how we can protect ourselves.

Next week

Someone from the Grand Jury is scheduled to be here. Details are lacking.

Last week

Lydia Ledesma-Reese, President of Oxnard College, dropped by to tell us about all the wonderful things happening. She certainly is an excellent representative. She pointed out that Oxnard College had one of the highest transfer rates to 4-year colleges in the nation, the second highest rated dental technician program in the nation and was the safest campus to attend in the county. Not Oxnard College's image.

Ramblings from Ross

[None: Thanks a bunch]

Winners

Lion D Otto SCHIMMEL has Free Fines today while Lion D Todd REHANEK is our Greeter. Lion Loyal FRAZIER pocketed his $15 Attendance Prize, so Lion D Mike PLISKY will only receive $5 for showing today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Otto SCHIMMEL wasn't able to take advantage of his free fines and missed $278.

Charter Night

Our 50th Year Celebration is fast approaching. Lion RC/S Rick SMITH has the invitations ready to mail. Sign up today or next week and save $5 per ticket. Filet mignon or salmon dinner costs only $40 if you sign up early. After next Friday, it'll set you back $45.

This promises to be a huge event. The Cabinet meeting runs Friday and Saturday at the Marriott Residence Inn — ending at 5 PM. We'll host a hospitality room until our festivities start at 6 PM. There may be more District officers than Noontimers attending our Charter Night. Lion DG George Stewart has sent out a very nice, personal invitation to the entire district.

Lion C Andy STAY will be emceeing the festivities as we award Noontimers for making this club what it is today. Hint: "What this club is today" is NOT polite, elegant, sophisticated or mannerly. It's hard to embarrass a Noontimer, but we'll try.

A little help

Your Bulletin Editor is now also your Treasurer. Unless someone else wants to take over the Bulletin, he is going to need a bit of help. Would the committee chairmen please try to send a quick email once a week or so to let me know what is happening? I have to use a bunch of pictures of WCD to fill space this week — and you can tell how busy WCD was by viewing how hard at work Lion C Andy STAY riding the kids pony at Vons. Guess he wasn't on strike.
