Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 50, Issue 18

October 24, 2003

This week

Our Special Guest today is Daniel Uhlar, Grand Jury Forman. Daniel will be discussing the role of the Grand Jury, how you are selected to be on it and what it's powers are.

Next week

It should be open.

Last week

Rick Kline, detective of identity theft for the Oxnard Police Department, dropped by to explain how all of us have made the wrong career choice. We should have been identity thieves. Your chance of getting caught are negligible and the rewards are huge.

The best ways to protect yourselves is to keep your Social Security card locked up, don't give out your SSN to anyone, shred all junk mail, examine your credit reports frequently and pray for miracles.

Ramblings from Ross

We have some big stuff coming up, so I'm asking you to support your event chairman if they ask for help.

Lion Rick has worked hard on the Noon-timers Golden Jubilee on Saturday, November 11 [Editors Note: NO. The date is November 15, Lion Ross] at our present location, the Residence Inn. We should all be there, if for no other reason than to witness Lion Andy's MC job.

One of the big, really fun events of the year is the Christmas party at the Tower Club, once again this year under the direction of Lion Byron. This will occur on Monday, December 8, and with the entertainment being arranged by Lion Dave, it should be a blast. It is now time to either turn in your silent auction items, or write a check.

These events don't just happen, as your event chairmen know. They take work and cooperation. So, please, give us a hand. You'll have a great time.

Winners

Lion John FARRAR is our Greeter for the second time since he started attending again. Welcome back, Lion John. Lion D Dave

TAPIE has Free Fines, so I guess we all get free mortgages. Lion Loyal FRAZIER was here so if he shows today, he'll enrich himself by $5. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Mike PLISKY attempted to garner the $288 prize, but missed.

Charter Night

All Noontimers are expected to attend Charter Night on November 15 as it is the time when we celebrate 50 years of Noontimerism. Usually these events are filled with self-congratulatory grandiloquence. However, because we are Noontimers, we'll do things a bit differently. We will reward our Noontimers for doing what we do best — screwing up.

Some come relive those moments that all of us would rather forget — except for those not directly involved. Lots of laughs, lots of red faces, lots of silliness and more than a bit of nostalgia. Who wouldn't want to have a helping of that?

Don't wait another 50 years to make it to one of these shindigs. Sign up today.
