This week

Our Special Guest today is Detective Scott Whitney of the Oxnard Police Department. He is going to be talking about gang violence in Oxnard. Probably he'll bring pictures of his latest suspects looking for a match.

Next week

Gail Pringle, the Naval Base Environmental Projects Manager, will be here to talk about what her office does to protect the environment around here.

Last week

Doc Reynolds decided he'd increase the average age at the meeting and show us what we have to look forward to in our declining years — if we are extremely lucky. He was fabulous, reciting scenes from plays, singing songs where each verse was in a different dialect and telling war stories. What a great afternoon. Too bad it ended so soon.

Ramblings from Ross

Outsiders often ask why we meet every week instead of every other week or even once a month. We meet every week because we enjoy it. We like the food and we like the company of other Lions.

As President of the Noontimers, I often have the task of getting a volunteer for a duty, and rarely does a Lion turn me down. So I want to thank Lion Dennis Amick for appearing this coming Sunday at the Academic Decathlon awards ceremony at Pacifica High School, to give them a check and to get some publicity for the Noontimers. We appreciate it, Second VP Dennis. Enjoy your lunch.

Winners

Lion D Mike PLISKY is our Greeter while Lion Irv TUCKER has free fines (that won't cost us much — Lion Irv never gets fined, anyway). Lion Jeff NORRIS wasn't here so he didn't collect the $15 Attendance Prize, which means that Lion Sig ASKVIK missed out on $20 by not being here. Today we draw for $25.

Election news

Save the date: March 2. We will need you to help out at the election.

Paid our bill

No sooner do we pay our bill than we receive the royal treatment. What a feast.

In case you were out getting beer, here's Janet doing what she does best at the Super Bowl half-time show.
