

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 50, Issue 31

February 20, 2004

This week

Our Special Guest today is Simon Poulter of Crystal Energy. They are the folks proposing the LNG facility out on one of the former oil platforms some 11 miles off from Mandalay Beach.

Next week

We will be hosting the Zone 7 Student Speaker's Contest. Should be a good contest.

Last week

Michael Case, who is currently representing the O'Ferrall family in their suit against the Channel Islands Harbor, dropped by to tell us what he could about the lawsuit. Interesting situation.

Ramblings from Ross

Your BE has taken shots at the president several times; each time, in fact, that I miss the deadline on these ramblings. The deadline, I am assured, is ten o'clock on Friday morning. This, I am told, gives him time to get these remarks into the newsletter. I believe the BE when he tells me this.

So I am emailing these ramblings to him at 9:45 on Friday morning. In truth, things are going so smoothly with the Noontimers that I have nothing to complain about and very little of any intelligence to say. Other than you are all invited to the end of the month bored meeting at Lion Todd's house. That's on February 25. Get address and gate information from Lion Todd.

Enjoy your lunch.

[Editors' Note: You'd take shots, too, Lion Ross, if you had to fill two pages every week and for weeks on end no one gave you any material to help out. This is supposed to be a bulletin about Noontimers and Noontimer events, not my personal hallucinations.]

Winners

Uh oh, we are in trouble. Lion Carlos MARTINEZ has Free Fines. Wonder what he'll serve us? Whatever it is, we can't fine him. We never should have let him buy a ticket. Our Greeter is Lion Hal WASSERMAN. Since he's our newest Noontimer (in length of service, not age) maybe we should all be introducing ourselves to him. Knowing Lion Hal, be prepared to be Greeted. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER managed to be here when his name was called and he'll enrich himself by $25 if he shows today. Just what we need: another attorney getting richer at our expense. Lion D Mike PLISKY managed to have the winning ticket for the Mad Marble Malarkey, but he was unable to find the right marble and missed his chance for $438.50.

Election news

Thanks to 2VP Dennis AMICK, D Dave TAPIE, P Ross OLNEY, D Pat RIGGS, 1VP Will BERG, D Otto SCHIMMEL, Mike PLISKY (and wife, Mabi), John

FARRAR, George THOMPSON, C Andy STAY, Ralph SUTTON, Jim BICKEL, Jeff NORRIS and Sal GONZALEZ, who have all signed up to help out on the March 2 election.

We desperately need a few more to fill out the schedule. We have to cover from 7 AM to 8 PM, which requires a lot of manpower. If you haven't yet signed up, please let Lions IPP Dick MAGGIO or BE/T Toby SCOTT know.

CALENDAR

February 19 ____ Lion Scoop LISKEY's birthday
February 20 ____ Program: Simon Poulter of Crystal Energy
March 2 ____ Noontimers man election polls all day at Julien Hathaway School