This week

Today is nominally an open meeting, however, Lion Hal WASSERMAN has been a Noontimer for a year and hasn't been installed yet. Before he starts serving on the Bored next month, we thought it high time to get him installed.

So, Lion VDG Ron Hurd is here to do the honors to Lion Hal.

Next week

Nothing scheduled yet.

Last week

It was an unscheduled open meeting. Due to a death in the family, the speaker couldn't make it.

Michael Kurland visited us and had so much fun he's thinking of joining. Silly him.

Ramblings from Ross

I don't have that much to say today as I near the end of my term, but I'll say something in order not to be whipped by BE Toby for not saying anything.

The Bored Meeting last night was held at the beautiful home of Lion Andy Stay, since the beautiful townhouse of Lion Todd, where we normally meet, is being remodeled. But Lion Andy was a perfect host, and Lion Todd did his usual superb job cooking steaks for all. And all, by the way, are invited to these meetings the last Wednesday of every month. Quite often non-Bored members attend, and enjoy the meal and the discussion. Don't forget the fast-approaching June 11 Friday, and the usually hilarious passing of the gavel from me to Lion Will who, according to the grapevine, will do an excellent job as President.

Winners

Lion T/BE Toby SCOTT has Free Fines, while Lion George THOMPSON is our Greeter. Lion Irv TUCKER was here when his name was called, so he'll be $15 richer if he makes it today. Lion D Jim BICKEL tried to enrich himself by several hundred Big Mac's ($639) but got fried.

Bored notes

Not much earthshaking happened at Wednesday's Bored meeting, but the Bored did discuss our lack of activities (just look at the calendar). We are going to start trying to have at least one activity each month.

We will hold the Installation in June, the Family BBQ in September, White Cane Daze in October, manning the polling for the Presidential election and the Holiday party in December. We are looking for activities for July and August, if anyone has any ideas. Time will tell if we actually hold all these events.

Heck, if we do have all these events, your BE may even have enough material to fill these pages every week.
