This week

Lion 1VP Will BERG has been so busy preparing his installation that he hasn't had time to either (1) schedule speakers or (2) tell your BE. So, today will be a surprise if it's not open.

Next week

See above.

Last week

We came, we planned, we executed — sort of. The skit for the Installation went OK, but it could have used a bit more rehearsal. If we hadn't had the cheat-sheets to work on Friday, Noon, we'd have been in much bigger trouble.

Ramblings from Ross

Here's a big "THANKS" to all who attended the party last Friday night, with a special thanks to those Lions who showed up at the last minute to fill the crowd. And we did fill the room. Everybody had a great time laughing and eating and dancing. Lion

Will did a fine job of organizing the event, so we all owe him another special thank you. Lion Will is our incoming president. He'll be taking over after I conduct one more meeting next Friday. Of course we will all support him, as you have me. Meanwhile, Lion Mike is holding his breath back in Wisconsin. He left money to participate in the Mad Marble Malarkey, now up to eight hundred dollars.

There will be only four marbles, plus the winner, left in the bag today and many Lions are buying more than one ticket. If the prize doesn't go today, there'll be only three marbles plus the winner next week, my last meeting as president. I have a feeling one of us will win today or next Friday.

Winners

Lion Hal WASSERMAN has Free Fines, while Lion Irv TUCKER is our Greeter. Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT pocketed his $5 Attendance Prize, so Lion Sal GONZALEZ (who???) only missed $5 by not showing.

Installation

Special thanks to Lion VDG Chuck Cassy for agreeing to install our special collection of incompetents. Congratulations to Lion Loyal FRAZIER who was made a Life Member of Lions.
