This week

It's the last meeting of Lion Ross OLNEY's presidency and fittingly, nothing is scheduled.

Next week

As Lion Will BERG's first act as President of this here club, he has decided to cancel the first meeting, so won't meet next Friday, July 2, ostensibly because of the July 4th Holiday.

However, rumors have it that Lion Will is trying to figure out how to be dark every week.

No speaker. Bad jokes. Very little news. If you missed it, you didn't.

Ramblings from Ross

After today, you won't have Ross to kick around anymore. Conducting this meeting is my last act as president. Next week, I will be back at the tables, and glad to be there. But on the other hand, it has been an interesting year. Serving a term as president of the Noontime Lions doesn't demand all that much since we have an efficient Secretary and Treasurer, so if you are asked to get in line, please consider it. Most of us really like this club, and serving here is all part of serving as a Lion. Thanks for all the help.

Whispers from Will

Hey, fellow Lions when it rains it pours. Our guest speaker, Judge Toy White called yesterday afternoon needing to postpone, so she's on tap for July 16. Sorry Ross, you'll just have to wait it out and even then you won't be able to sit next to her. Newspaper item on Thursday said that Judge White was just elevated to assistant presiding judge. The new presiding judge elect is John Smiley one of Lion Rich Figueroa's favorite barristers NOT!

Anyway, I thought I'd let you all in on the new administration's theme or slogan, for the coming year. It's 'Five O in O Five' meaning that we'd like to get up to 50 luncheoners by the year 2005. Participation has been growing... especially these last few weeks as President Ross's term draws to a close.

Winners

Lion Sig ASKVIK has Free Fines today, while Lion Irv TUCKER is our Greeter for the second week in a row. Heck, he can be our Greeter next week — when the club is dark. Lion Irv also had his name drawn for the $10 Attendance Prize, so if he shows up today, he'll pocket the $10 plus the free lunch for Greeting. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Loyal FRAZIER had the winning ticket, but decided that Lion Irv was on a roll, so he had Lion Irv draw the lucky marble. Big mistake. They missed splitting $867.50.

Guess who is installing

A Noontimer has been invited to install the incoming officers for both the El Rio and Simi Valley Lions clubs. How long has it been since any Noontimer installed even one club's officers in a year, much less two?

Who is this upstart? None other than Lion Region N Chairman Rick SMITH. Hard to believe that anyone would want to be installed by a Willie Nelson look-alike.
