This week

Randy McCaslin from the Ventura Coastal County Association of Realtors will be here to talk about real estate, home prices and interest rates.

Next week

If you can decipher "Amicable comments" perhaps you'll know better than your BE what the hell is happening next week.

Last week

Judge Toy White. Decided to ruin her reputation by plunging into the abyss known as the Oxnard Noontimers. Naturally, we treated her horribly. Fortunately, she was pretty good at giving it back to us, so the day ended up about a draw. Definitely amusing. Good theater — and if you listened, some excellent information (guaranteed to be lost on any Noontimer.)

Whispers from Will

Hello Lions! We held a New Members breakfast yesterday (possibly the most civil function we hold), for three of our four new lions. Having four new members join during Membership Chairman Mike Plisky's absence has been a real treat. Now that he's re-energized and back on the job we expect things to go back to normal. Lion Mike, when are you going fishing again? We filled a room at the Courtyard by Marriott, formerly known as the Radisson, affectionately known as the 'Old Hilton' for Hal Wasserman, Michael Kurland and David Migoeki. Chuck Conway not yet having been released by his therapist was unable to attend. Our three new lions were formerly warned by former past presidents of the consequences of missing a meeting where new officers are nominated.

Guys! We need to get serious today about reserving seats for a Dodger game sometime in September. Lion Byron feels pretty good that if we reserve long enough in advance we'll be able to get some pretty good seats. How about opening day 2006, Byron? We'll be passing around a sign up sheet today.

Lion Dave, what's up with the Magic Castle thing?

We are opening the Lion's Bulletin again to all you members out there that have stuff to share. We used to get a lot of funny contributions from the rank and file. If you all would send your stuff to Toby Scott at toby@scotts.net it would be appreciated.

Amicable comments

My conclusion from last weeks reading of Toy White's resume is that I needed more training and I should add to the speaker selection criteria the length of the resume. The longer the better. Welcome to new Lions Dave, Michael and patient Hal Wasserman for waiting almost one year for his Welcome Breakfast.

Lion Dave MAGOCKI has Free Fines, while Lion 1VP Dennis AMICK is our Greeter. Lion D Todd REHANEK pocketed his $20, so Lion Richard FIGUROA only missed $5 by not showing. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER drew for the paltry sum of $113 in the Mad Marble Malarkey. No surprise. With a jillion marbles, it's pretty hard to find the white one.

Visitation

Next Thursday evening we visit the Carpinteria Lions Club. Be sure to sign up and go. The Carpinteria club built their own clubhouse and it is beautiful. It is also home to Lion District Governor Ron Hurd. Their club is a ton of fun.

New pictured needed

Please, somebody. Take some new pictures. Ever since Lion Rick took over the Secretary's job we have had very few pictures taken, so we have to keep recycling the same stupid pictures. Doesn't someone have a camera they'd like to bring to meetings?
