This week

Our Special Guest today is Irene Pinkard, candidate for City Councilman (Councilperson???) for the City of Oxnard. In case the name seems slightly familiar, Irene is the much better half of Lion Bedford PINKARD, who is leaving his post as City Councilman. Now that that roadblock is out of the way, Irene might actually get something done on Council.

Next week

It is open.

Last week

Oxnard Mayoral candidate Tom Holden decided to go slumming in search of votes. Too bad so few of us showed up, and that so many of those live outside Oxnard. Oh well, he gave a good speech and answered a lot of questions. And he did a good job of exchanging jabs with Lions Mike PLISKY and Bedford PINKARD.

Whispers from Will

Well plans are progressing smoothly for our Christmas party. Entertainment has been booked but Byron is still looking for more auction items though. This benefits all of us so let's get busy on more items for the auction. Hey Lion Dick Maggio what about your cabin? That would make a great auction item. The big Christmas push begins today. By the way did I mention you can get 7.5 million toothpicks out of a cord of wood?

We made a little under $600 on White Cane Daze, but as a group we still didn't have such a swell turnout and most all who did show, were either very late arriving or early leaving. Come on guys, a job worth doing is worth doing well. This all goes to a good cause. Don't forget for those of you who weren't able to show up, you will see an additional $65 on your monthly account. Did I mention that if it doesn't live inside a hard skeleton, it's not an insect?

For the next few months (and this is temporary) Flora has given her permission for Bored Meetings will be at Lion Andy Stay's house.

And finally, that silent-film mogul William Fox - you know, '20th Century-Fox' - hardly ever set foot on his theatre stages or saw any of his productions. Wasn't interested.

Winners

Lion Jeff NORRIS has Free Fines while Lion Loyal FRAZIER is our Greeter. Lion Matt PAVIN wasn't here so he didn't qualify for the $10 Attendance Prize. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Todd REHANEK attempted to garner the $261.50 prize but he was out of adjustment.

White Cane Daze

Special thanks to Lion D Pat RIGGS for organizing White Cane Daze for us this year. His end of it went off just fine. Unfortunately, the help barely did. Lions Dick MAGGIO, MC Mike PLISKY, Michael KUR-

LAND, Sal GONZALEZ, Irv TUCKER, C Andy STAY, LT Scoop LISKEY, Byron WEDEMEYER and BE/T Toby SCOTT all showed up. Lion Mike PLISKY had to leave a few minutes after he showed and Lions STAY and LISKEY were an hour late for their shifts.

Still, we collected $546.96 for our Sight and Hearing Fund. Not bad. And think of all those $65 invoices for those too lazy to make it out at all.

Election

Time to make plans. Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT will be signing up Noontimers to work the election in 11 days — yes, it's really that close. We need about 9 volunteers, but they need to be on time. There will be voting inspectors from the Department of Justice out in force, so we need to do a good job.
