

THE LIONS DIN

Oxnard Noontimers Lions Club

WWW.NOONTIMERS.ORG

Volume 51, Issue 39

April 8, 2005

This week

Our non-Special Guest today is Lion Sal GONZALEZ who is going to mumble something about housing in Oxnard.

The good news is that for him to speak, Lion Sal will actually have to show up for once.

Next week

Luz Cruz will be here. The information sent to your BE is: "Luz Cruz, City Impact's mentoring program in Ventura County." Yeah, I don't know what it means, either.

Last week

It was open.

Whispers from Will

Remember the District wide convention is being held this month in Santa Maria on the weekend of the 29th, 30th and 1st. All interested Noontimers are invited to attend with spouses or significant other(s). If interested you can look it all up at the District's web site at lions4a3.org. That's the web site that Toby set up for the District. It's easy to navigate in so give it a look. Carlos dropped by for a visit last Friday. Though he's not out of the woods yet it sure was nice to see him in such high spirits. By the way, anybody interested in visiting a Big League Dreams this Sunday or maybe the next weekend can do so courtesy of BLD. They would provide the transportation and meals for the day. Families are also invited. You can call Gil Ramirez on his cell at 340-8469.

Winners

Lion Byron WEDEMEYER has Free Fines, which probably means he'll be late. Lion John FARRAR is our Greeter, which means he probably won't be late. Lion John was here last week when his name was called for the $15 Attendance Prize, so if he makes it today and greets everyone well, he'll pocket $15 and a free lunch. In the Mad Marble Marlarkey, Lion IPP Ross OLNEY took aim at $131 but missed. Too many marbles for anyone to have much of a chance.

Elections are today

We have had three readings of the nominees, so according to the bylaws, we are to hold our elections today. So we are.
