Volume 51, Issue 42

April 29, 2005

This week

Considering that this is the last Friday of the month, it is open. . . Unless someone sneaks in and starts to speak.

Next week

Your BE is unaware of any program scheduled.

Last week

Manfred Mueller, discussed homeopathic medicine. In the past, homeopathic medicine has been discounted by the mainstream medical community, however recently there have been well-conceived studies that demonstrate the efficacy of some treatments. The German government has begun funding more studies and several mainstream medical journals have begun printing the findings.

Interesting talk.

Whispers from Will

May is Healthy Vision Month and this year it's focused on low vision awareness and education. Once again, the Lions Eye Health Program (LEHP) and EyeCare America join forces to preserve sight. Thanks to their combined efforts last year, Eye-

Care America helped more than 3,000 people in the month of May.

In honor of Healthy Vision Month, please encourage anyone 65 and older to call EyeCare America's Seniors EyeCare Program helpline 1-800-222-EYES(3937) to see if they may be eligible for a comprehensive dilated eye exam and care for up to one year often at no out-of-pocket cost. This year-round program helpline operates 24 hours, every day.

The club is moving full steam ahead on the Joint Installation on June 18th at the Bard Mansion on the Navy Base. Tickets are $25 per person and all are encouraged to attend. The Noontimers have committed through our Bored to sponsor a $150 one-page ad as well as the table decorations. Please remain alert for more announcements and keep in mind that the Bard Mansion is not a very large venue and that tickets may sell out quickly.

Winners

Soon-to-be Lion Kirby KANESHIRO has Free Fines today while, Lion BE/T Toby SCOTT is our Greeter. Lion C Andy STAY was here when his name was called. If he can make it to two meetings in a row, he'll be $10 richer. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Chris PACHANA tried a quick-draw for $184, but his aim was off.

A little help

Your BE needs just a bit of help with content for the Bulletin. I have finished the pictures from Father Eugin, no one is taking pictures at the meetings any more and I'm going to have to resort to jokes, like the "Birddog" on the left or write a whole lot more.

Off to the convention

Several of your fellow Noontimers are already off to the convention and others will be leaving early to make the 4:00 PM check in time in Santa Maria.
