Eric Oland joined our own Lion S/ZC Rick SMITH for a session of forms (the artistic moves choreographed mostly by ancient masters — Lion Rick's was Huang Lo), some releases, a bit of sword play and board breaking. Lion Rick broke three inches of board with his spin side kick.

Eric is a 4th degree black belt, while Lion Rick is 2nd. Pretty impressive show.

Greetings lions, tomorrow is the big date for the Joint Installation at the Bard Mansion. For those of you who are attending please be sure that you have turned your name and driver's license numbers into Lion President-elect Dennis who I'm assuming will be 'Installed' tomorrow night. Should be a fun evening.

Very sad news for us all... former Lion Bill Burke passed away Wednesday. Bill was a legend in Oxnard having lived most his adult life here. In one way or another he touched all of us, whether it was with the Lions or the Chamber of Commerce or any of a number of other places, Bill had that special knack of rubbing off on you. No doubt a part of him will stay with every one of us in one story or another. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. So next time you lift a drink in cheer with friends, take a brief moment to have one for Bill, we'll miss him. He'll appreciate it, wherever he is.

Lion Steve SABEDRA has Free Fines, while Lion D Bedford PINKARD is our Greeter. Lion Dave GOSNELL pocketed his $25 Attendance Prize, so Lion Bobby MULINS only missed his chance at $5 by not making it. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Sig ASKVIK was unable to select the proper marble and missed his chance at $250 and to double his net worth.

It's tomorrow. Hope you have your dancing shoes on.

Several Noontimers have sent your BE pictures, so here are some of them. Lion Dave TAPIE and his wife, Sue, had a wonderful time on their cruise to Vancouver, BC. All we got was a mug shot.

Father Eugin sent some pictures back with some of the stuff in the shipping container.
