This week

Not only is it the last Friday of the month, it is the last Friday of the year. This is Lion P Will BERG's last day in front of us (hold your cheers). It will be open.

Next week

Be sure to be here. Lion 1VP Dennis AMICK has scheduled a sit-down dinner with a wonderful menu, entertainment and lots of surprises. It will be a memorable day.

Last week

Ron Cameron, Mediator and Arbitrator of Dispute Resolution Center, decided the Noontimers needed a lot of dispute mediation and told us where to go. Lots of questions indicate he was pretty popular and informative.

Whispers from Will

Hey Lions! The joint installation came off well and I want to thank all you

Noontimers who showed up. When they started handing out the certificates of recognition it was clear that the cheers from the Noontimers dominated the room.

Oh by the way if any of you have unsuccessfully tried looking for Lion Todd's new office it's just across from his old digs on Yucca Street although the address reads 3645 Saviers Road. You still enter via Yucca, don't go to the old place. This is my swan song as your president and my two year exile up at the head table will be mercifully over soon. While I appreciate having had the opportunity to have served it sure will be grand to get back into the swing of things.

Our newly installed incoming president

Dennis will have a little surprise for us all at our very next meeting.

Sadly Lion Andy Stay has been back in Philadelphia handling the passing away of his Father. If there is a bright spot at all it may be that Andy was able to get back there in time to see him before leaving us. Andy...all our condolences go out to you and Flora in this time of loss.

Winners

Lion D Pat RIGGS has Free Fines, while Lion S/RC Rick SMITH is our Greeter.

Installation dinner

We had one. It was an excellent event — except that it is clear that Noontimers need to be put in charge of entertainment. Sure, the bagpipe band was good. But the rest of it needed a kick in the pants.

Still, Lion Will was given certificates from nearly every politician on earth along with his Melvin Jones Fellow certificate and pin.
