This week

Our Special Guests today are all Noontimers. Lion P Dennis AMICK has arranged for a sit-down dinner for us, with all the installation stuff we missed at the joint installation, plus we will have our installation of new Lion, Kirby KANESHIRO. And who knows, there might be some planned silliness, too.

Last week

...was the last Friday of the month as well as last Friday of the year, so it was open.

Next week

Stan Hakes, Management Consultant and Trainer on "Power and Influence" will be here to talk about power and influence.

Amickable comments

June's Bored Meeting seemed to be one of celebration for at least one Lion. Your guess is accurate; yes it was President Will. He was presidential; taking control, showing enthusiasm and displaying his enterprising side. Unsaid were his probable thoughts for the new Bored, which might have been "Good _____ Luck and Don't _____ it up." Of course, we all wish him the same. We also thank Lion Will. We appreciate his guidance and leadership during the past year. He will be a valued Past President of Oxnard Noontimers Lions and we look forward to his continued contribution. Thank You Lion Will.

Winners

Lion John FARRAR has Free Fines today, while Lion Kirby KANESHIRO is our Greeter. Lion Dave TAPIE was here so he collected the $10 Attendance Prize. Lion 3VP Jeff NORRIS wasn't here, so even if he shows today he won't collect $5. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion TT Steve SABEDRA demonstrated there is no such thing as "beginners luck" by pulling the wrong marble and missing his chance at $271.50

Bored report

At Wednesday's Bored Meeting, an astonishing thing happened: several people showed up. Barely a quorum, mind you. But enough to get business done.

Lion IPP Will BERG will merge the three copies of potential bylaws together and a committee will begin creating our new bylaws.

This Summer, we will be visiting Carpinteria, El Rio and Pleasant Valley Lions clubs.

The bored voted to Adopt a Poll for the special November election.

The bored voted to send $500 to Father Eugen in the name of Lion Andy STAY's father, who passed away last month. Lion Andy had requested that we do this rather than send flowers.

Region's Lions Clubs install officers jointly

The June 18 event was held at the Bard Mansion at Naval Base Ventura County.

The event was chaired by Lions Elvie Marfil and Carlos Holanda of the Simi Valley club. It was designed to bring together local clubs to share in a celebration honoring past, present and incoming officers and members. It also demonstrated for guests and potential members the honor and recognition being awarded to local organizations for community service.

The joint meeting demonstrated how shared projects can work among the smaller and the much larger clubs.

Numerous dignitaries attended, including District Gov. Ron Hurd of the Carpinteria Lions Club; District Gov. Elect Chuck Cassy of Ventura Downtown Lions; and many past district governors. Also attending were Assemblyman Pedro Nava, D-Santa Barbara; Oxnard Mayor Pro Tem John Zaragoza; and Jason Spadaro, representing Sen. Tom McClintock, R-Thousand Oaks.

Hurd presented Johnson and Gibson with Lions lifetime memberships. Will Berg of the Oxnard Lions Club was named a Melvin Jones Fellow and Lion William Schneider Sr., of the Saticoy Lions Club, was presented with his club's Lion of the Year award.

"We Serve" is the motto of the Lions service organization and all the incoming presidents of the participating clubs set their main goal to serve their respective communities and to reach out to those in need, Marfil said.

For more information on how to become a Lion, call Marfil at 1-818-800-1060 or 1-818-980-7010, ext. 22.
