Our Special Guest today is Johnathan Light, Attorney and expert on Baseball. He is a senior partner at Nordman, Cormany, Hair & Compton and expert on employment law. He also wrote the award-winning book, The Cultural Encyclopedia of Baseball of which the second edition was published this June. Your BE wasn't informed, but presumes Mr. Light will be speaking about baseball.

Last week

John Crombach, Oxnard Police Chief, decided to risk reputation and job to venture into the Lions Den. He discussed the permanent injunction against the Colonia Chicas gang. Among other things it has reduced violent crime in the restricted area by 80%. Not bad.

Next week

Linda Braunschweiger, Community Investment Specialist for Affinity Bank and President of Rebuilding Together will be here to discuss community investment.

No steak this week, but if you haven't already thanked Patrick for last weeks terrific meal, please stop by his office and say Thanks.

Have you looked at our website www.noontimers.org lately? Lion Toby and Lion Rick have provided a very user friendly home base for information about the Noontimers with links to other District 4 –A3 clubs and Lions International. Also, and I add (with caution) that each of us may promote our own websites promoting our special interest.

There is also the opportunity area where each of you can offer your suggestions of additions or deletions to the website. I think the website could be used as a valuable tool when introducing Noontimers to prospective new members.

At the last bored meeting Lion Bedford suggested that the bored and those interested participate in a planning meeting for this Lion year ending June 30, 2006. Good suggestion. The meeting will be held at 2580 E. Main St., Suite 102, Ventura at 6 PM, Tuesday, July 19. This is three blocks east of Seaward just before Katherine St. The best parking is in the back of the building on San Nicholas St. Please send an email to me at dennis@ifacorp.com if you plan to attend.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL has Free Fines, so he'll probably be late — if at his age he can remember what happened last week. Lion D Pat RIGGS is our Greeter, so better keep grease-remover handy. Lion IPP Will BERG pocketed the $15 Attendance Prize, so Lion IVP Otto SCHIMMEL will pocket only $5 if he makes it today. For $5, he'll be here. Lion TT Steve SA-BEDRA tried to pocket a fine-free (you can't fine the Tail Twister) $298.50 in the Mad Marble Malarkey, but he blue it. Lion Kirby KANESHIRO got what he deserved: he left early, his ticket was called for one of the scratchers but no one at his table would go pick it up for him. Don't leave early.

Letter from the bush

Sorry about dad really. I will say a mass for him. I am praying for him and for you.

Andy, tell you what! Can you imagine these knuckleheads in Mfumte mistaking Shrek for you? You will laugh out your lungs when I send you the CD. I am sending you some photos now anyway, and you can imagine the rest. The more I miss you the more I pray for you. I should be out again next week. Will tell you more.

Praying for all that is dear to you.

For a reasonable sum (to be decided by the Bored) you can run your ad here for up to a year. Figure out what you want to say and let your BE know.
