Our Special Guest today is Andrew Gross who will be speaking about "Magic in Sales."

Yeah, I know. Not much of an introduction, but that's all Lion 1VP Otto SCHIMMEL managed to cough up to your Bulletin Editor. Sorry about that, Andrew.

Calvin Hill from the Dallas Cowboys spoke for almost an hour and amazingly the Noontimers were quiet, respectful and attentive. Everyone agreed this really was one of the best programs ever. Kudos to Lion Otto for pulling this one off.

Well at least Lion Otto got this right. Next week is the last Friday of the month and it's open.

Our Past President Mike Plisky conducted another excellent new member breakfast meeting that inspired all of the Oxnard Noontimers present to be their best. New Lions Bobby Mullins, Chuck Conway, Kirby Kaneshiro and Steve Sabedra had the benefit of some heart felt history of Lion Loyal's membership in the Oxnard Noontimers Lions since 1955. Lion Toby created quiet thought as he shared his "pay it forward" philosophy and how practicing Lionism will continue to benefit every future generation.

Lion Rick proved he can multitask as he held and fed "Rick Jr." and delivered his brief explanation of how Lions is organized while Lion Dave mentioned some nostalgic events and other events that are just history. Everyone was at their best including the new members who passed the IQ test given by Lion Pat and are now officially authorized to begin Lionism.
