Last week

We held the Zone Student Speaker contest. Alex Felker won yet again — he's a senior, so he won't be back. Alex had his usual excellent speech well prepared. Thanks to all the Noontimers who worked hard to make the event a success.

Lion VDG Jeff Roundy even attended the event. With any luck, this guy will be our next District Governor.

In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion D Todd RE-HANEK took futile aim at $137.

Amickable comments

The best of news. Lion Carlos is well. He has been ill for more than a year; a very long time to endure an illness wondering about the future. Because of his years of loyalty and service to Noontimers, Lion Dave Tapie suggested we make a gift of $400.00 to Lion Carlos. The Board is approving this suggestion. Thanks Lion Dave. We can look forward to seeing a smiling Lion Carlos at a meeting very soon.

This week

Surprise!!!

Next week

Guess???

Winners

Lion C Andy STAY has Free Fines (great, now we'll never shut him up) and Lion MC Mike PLISKY is our Greeter (like he needs a free meal). Lion Bobby MULLINS proved yet again that he's the luckiest Noontimer ever by winning the $15 Attendance Prize.

Lion Carlos

Lion Carlos had surgery to remove his bladder last week. The great news is that there was no cancer in the bladder and he no longer has to have chemotherapy. He is still weak, but is planning on attending a meeting soon. If you'd like to wish him well, or just say, "Hi," his phone number is 981-9842.

Lions International Purpose and Code of Ethics

Lions International Purposes

- To Create and foster a spirit of understanding among the peoples of the world.
- To Promote the principles of good government and good citizenship.
- To Take an active interest in the civic, cultural, social and moral welfare of the community.
- To Unite the clubs in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding.
- To Provide a forum for the open discussion of all matters of public interest; provided, however, that partisan politics and sectarian religion shall not be debated by club members.

To Encourage service-minded people to serve their community without personal financial reward, and to encourage efficiency and promote high ethical standards in commerce, industry, professions, public works and private endeavors.

Lions Code of Ethics

- To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.
- To Seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.
- To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.
- Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.
- To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

- Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, as to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.
- To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.
