This week

Very strange. Lion 1VP Otto SCHIMMEL called your BE and asked for his fax number to send him some stuff on today's speaker. Here it is 11 AM and no fax yet. Your BE appreciates the thought, but one wonders how much lead time Lion Otto thinks is required to put this rag out?

to the plate to support and do their part to make this convention a success. The Noontimers served barbecued Kosher dogs and award winning Wine for the noon meal. At the end of the day the Noontimers hosted a hospitality room serving Margaritas and beer. Thanks to all of those Noontimers who helped make this a success.

Last week

It was just as open as it was supposed to be.

Next week

Do you think next week's program is on the missing fax???

Amickable comments

No Ruckus and no strip tease but all seemed to have a good time at the Lions District Convention this past weekend. A large part of the success is due to the planning and organization done by Lion Rick Smith and Lion Toby Scott. And the Noontimers stepped up

Winners

Lion P Dennis AMICK has Free Fines, while Lion D Todd REHANEK is our Greeter. Lion Dave GOSNELL was here when his name was called, even though he was late to the meeting. If he shows up on time, he'll pocket $15. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion George THOMPSON was unable to come up with the right marble to collect $228.50.

store again on Saturday to get more margarita stuff as we nearly ran out on Friday, and Lion Toby thought he had got enough for both afternoons. Not many Noontimers realize that Lion Rick was in charge of registration for the convention. He sent out all the invites, received all the reservations, banked all the money, wrote all the checks for expenses and handled all the meal registrations and last-minute changes. The convention committee reports that registration has never run so smoothly.

Congratulations, Lion Rick.

Convention report

Thanks to everyone who pulled together and helped out at the convention. Despite being unable to get the hot dog cart into the patio, we had great success. The El Rio Lions let us use their bbq's and we served hot dogs and wine as scheduled. Tons of thanks to Lions Kirby KANESHIRO and John FARRAR who spent three hours cleaning up the hot dog cart only to find they couldn't get it into the patio. The work is appreciated, anyway.

Also, Lion TT Steve SABEDRA and his wife, Sara, spent a lot of time helping Lion S Rick SMITH out with registration. Lion P Dennis AMICK's comments list everyone who helped out.

Your BE doesn't know how many hot dogs we served, but we handed out nearly 70 margaritas in the hospitality room — not counting refills. Lion T Toby SCOTT had to go to the
