This week

Our Special Guest today is Denise Carter from Assisted Living, Ventura County. She will be discussing what her organization does for the elderly who need assistance.

Last week

No, Lion Jeff NORRIS didn't do yet another program. It was an open meeting, but Lion Jeff told the best jokes and what is your BE to do but run his picture again.

Next week

There will be no next week, nor the week after, for that matter. We are dark on Christmas Eve and News Years Eve. See you next year.

Winners

Lion TT Roman VAISMAN is our Greeter while Lion D Pat RIGGS has Free Fines. We probably aren't going to get free transmissions, are we? Too bad. Lion Bedford PINKARD was here and pocketed his $5 Attendance Prize, so Lion Loyal FRAZIER only missed his chance for $5 by not being here when his name was called. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Roman tried for a rare double, but even the Russian Mafia couldn't help him pilfer the $122.50 kitty. Probably too small.

Christmas Party

It was an excellent Christmas Party. Kudos to Lions P Jim PLISKY and LT Dick MAGGIO for pulling it off. The entertainment was outstanding, attendance was way up (50-something, compared to last year's 30-something) and it was most enjoyable.

Your BE talked to former Noontimers Dr. Jim Caballero and Tony Grey at the event and they whispered that they had been talking to another former Noontimer, Jim Lovato, and the three could possibly rejoin our crew. If you see any of these specimens around town, be sure to coax them to a meeting. They were all excellent Noontimers and would be most welcome additions.

Thanks to everyone who contributed auction items, in particular Lions D George THOMPSON and 2VP Ross OLNEY for their generous contributions and to Dr. Jim Caballero who brought items even though he wasn't a guest — and, no, he didn't bring any cervical pillows. Only longstanding Noontimers will know what that is about, but it is funny.

It was a great event. The president of the Ventura Downtown Lions Club even said it was much better than her club's Christmas Party.
