This week

It is the last Friday of the month and is therefore open.

Last week

Lion Jeff NORRIS decided to take advantage of the opportunity for a free meal by dropping by to tell the story of how he spent hundreds of hours on a dangerous case and got bupkis for his troubles. The trip took us through the steamy side of Ventura County politics and power-centers. It sounded a lot like "Mulholland Falls," except no one died — except Lion Jeff's bank account.

Next week

Good thing the District requires us to have this heading or you wouldn't be reminded every week that Noontimers never plan that far in advance.

Winners

Lion BE Toby SCOTT picked up his $15 Attendance Prize, so Lion Ed STILE only missed out on $5 by not being here when his name was called. After Lion John FARRAR made zero use of his Free Fines last week, guest Andrea Mariani will make even less use of his Free Fines this week. Lion MC Mike PLISKY pulled off a rare double — and this one pays. He won the Greeter, no big deal, but he also won the Mad Marble Malarkey, to the tune of $354. That is a big deal. And he just sold his house after about a dozen years on the market. This all should amount to the largest fine ever collected at a Noontimer meeting.

Club Elections

The ballots will be handed out at today's meeting so we can vote on next year's officers. If you wish to write in a candidate, simply cross out the malcreant's name and write in one of your own choosing. He'll lose anyway.

Casino Night

A week from tomorrow, the Channel Islands Lions Club is hosting its Casino Night. They have been huge supporters of our events and it would be nice to reciprocate. Lion S Ev BATEY has tickets for only $30.

Several of us have attended in the past and it's a ton of fun and the CI Lions always have great door prizes and fantastic food.

No Events Planned

Our club has nothing planned for the future. Does anyone have any ideas for something we can do to justify our existence? It is time we did something for our community. We have a bored meeting in a week and a half. Let's get something planned.
