This week

Our Special Guest today is Fred Morgan from Wounded Warriors. He has a short video of their program and then he's going to ask for help with an event.

Last week

Well, last week was Good Friday and we didn't have a meeting. But the week before, Dwight Roystom, Director of Ageless Men's Health in Santa Barbara, dropped by to talk about testosterone levels; how to check them, what to do if they are too low and the health effects of ignoring the problem.

Of course, most of our female visitors have never complained about a lack of group testosterone. Still, a good program.

Who knows?

Winners

Lion Bedford PINKARD has Free Fines, while Lion Chris ("How The Hell Are Ya?") PACHANA is our Greeter. As usual, a new Lion had his name pulled for the Attendance Prize (how does it work that the new guys get their names pulled instantly and some of us haven't had ours called in years?). Unusually,

Lion Timur TALUY wasn't here to collect his $5, so today we draw for $10. That'll bring him 5 years of bad luck. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER tried to replace Lion MC Mike PLISKY as the usual suspect in the Mad Marble Malarkey. And as usual, he lost, missing out on $144.

Installation?

We have elected officers. It is usual for us to have an Installation event sometime in June. Reservations for events in June are notoriously difficult to book, so we need to get on the stick.

Actually, looking at the calendar, it is obvious that the club needs to do something — anything — that's going to be interesting to the members.

Car Show

The Pleasant Valley Lions are hosting a car show at the Camarillo Airport this Sunday from 10 AM to 3:30 PM. Lion Pat RIGGS and his wife Kathy will be at the Child ID booth representing Masonic Lodge 341. Bring your grandkids and have them ID'd and then enjoy a grand time at the car show.

Guess Who???

At least one Noontimer showed up last week for the non-meeting. What makes this particularly noteworthy is the offending Noontimer is our Bulletin

Editor, Lion Toby SCOTT. He probably should be fined — if you'd like the job of editing this tripe.
