This week

Our Special Guest today is Officer Coe from the Oxnard Police Department K9 Unit. They are training a new dog that we might want to sponsor.

Last week

Our Special Guest wasn't. He was supposed to be Lion LT Dick MAGGIO, but he had better things to do. Next time he shows his face at a Noontimer meeting he should be fined heavily.

Next week

Who knows?

Winners

Lion IPP Dave TAPIE has Free Fines today, while Lion Alt-S Jeff NORRIS is our Greeter. Lion D George THOMPSON was here to qualify for the $10 Attendance Prize, so if he shows today he'll be rich. In the Mad Marble Malarkey Lion D Will BERG went fishing for $170.50, but the prize was too small so he threw it back.

Installation?

We still need concrete plans for an installation. Is anyone working on this?

Convention

It was a great convention. More than half the Lions clubs in the District participated in the Food Fair. There were booths from the Noontimers, just not the flavor from Oxnard.

Lion PDG Stan SHARP was Lion of the Year and deservedly so. He and the Arroyo Grande Lions got Long Tail Awards for visiting every club in the District and he also talked to every Lion thinking about leaving Lions. It worked. We had the lowest percentage of Lions leaving in the state and one of the lowest rates anywhere. We were also among the leaders for new members and finished the year up more than +30 members. A good year, a good event and most of you missed it.

Wounded Warriors

Is anyone following up on working with Wounded Warriors? They made a very nice presentation to our club and we certainly could use an activity like their Half-Marathon.

We have no activities planned. We have no committee worthy of the name trying to find activities. We have turned into a knife and fork club. In this environment knife and fork clubs last about 2 years.
