It is supposed to be open, but Lion BE Toby SCOTT will be giving a short report on the District Convention two weeks ago.

Last week

Officer Scott Coe and another officer (your BE was derelict in his duties and neglected to get his name) from the Oxnard Police Department K9 Unit dropped by to talk about how the canine units work and how they are funded.

All the costs for the dogs are paid for by a private foundation. The city pays for nothing other than the officer's salary who works with the dog.

After the program, we went outside and saw the dog attack the "bad guy" in the Lion Jim PLISKY look-alike suit.

Winners

Lion P Jim PLISKY is our Greeter. Just what you wanted: to be greeted by an inflated Quasimodo. Our Treasurer, Lion Tim TENOPIR has Free Fines, so he can do anything he wants to our bills — oh, never mind. He already did. Lion Chris PACHANA was here when his number came up, so if he manages to drag himself back today, he'll be $5 richer. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Otto SCHIMMEL was buried in his attempt to grab $180.

Installation?

Our installation will be on Friday, July 15, at the Embassy Suites. Drinks at 6 PM, dinner at 7. The Bored decided to pay for parking for all attendees. Bring your parking stub to the event.

We don't have an installing officer yet, but you can count on it being someone special.

Who knows?

Wounded Warriors

Lion IVP Tom CONTRERAS made contact with Fred Morgan from the Naval Battalion and they need help with three events:

Seabee Days 23-24 July

- Boxing Event: assist with ring, gloves and the event. Saturday from 12-4pm 3-6
- Karaoke Contest: Judging contestants 4 Volunteers, At Port Hueneme

NBVC Surf Contest 20-21 August

- Registration
- BBQ
- At Point Mugu

Wounded Warrior Half Marathon, September

17

- Unlimited Volunteers
- Aid Stations
- BBQ

- At Point Mugu

We should be able to provide major help for them. It's a great program, a great recruiting opportunity for us and a chance to have fun and feel good.
