This week

As of 11 AM, your BE was not aware of any program for today. If you are the program, the Noontimers sincerely apologize. But be prepared. This is pretty typical for us. We were last well-organized in 1959.

Last week

Manuel Munoz, publisher and editor of Vida News Paper, decided to visit his old friend, Lion Ross OLNEY, and talk a bit about his newspaper. When you consider that papers are dying like flies, it is pretty remarkable that Vida is going strong, gaining readership every year. Must be doing something right.

Next week

Are you kidding??? We don't know who is speaking today. Next week may as well be the next millennium.

Winners

Lion Dave GOSNELL is our Greeter today. How in the hell is he going to do that? He won't get here in time to greet anyone. If we really don't have a program, we should wind it up fast and have no one here when he traipses in. Lion John FARRAR has Free Fines. That won't hurt much.

He's too quiet, anyway. Lion D Todd REHANEK pocketed his $10 Attendance Prize, so Lion Bedford PINKARD will only enrich himself by $5 if he manages to make it in today. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion BE Toby SCOTT bribed his daughter, Jessica, to draw the marble ticket for him, but no amount of bribing brought him the white orb. < sigh > He lost $199.

the Naval Battalion and they need help with three events:

Seabee Days 23-24 July: At Port Hueneme

- Boxing Event: assist with ring, gloves and the event. Saturday from 12-4 pm
- Karaoke Contest: Judging contestants
4 Volunteers needed

NBVC Surf Contest 20-21 August, At Point Mugu

- Registration
- BBQ

Wounded Warrior Half Marathon, September 17, At Point Mugu

- Unlimited Volunteers
- Aid Stations
- BBQ

We should be able to provide major help for them. It's a great program, a great recruiting opportunity for us and a chance to have fun and feel good.

Installation

Our installation will be on Friday, July 15, at the Embassy Suites. Drinks at 6 PM, dinner at 7.

The Bored decided to pay for parking for all attendees. Bring your parking stub to the event.

Invite friends, relatives and others (Noontimers mostly have "others") to the event. It's more fun with more people.
