This week

Our Special Guest today is Lynda Griffin, Supervising Rehabilitation Therapist, with Veterans Home of California—Ventura (CalVet). She is here to talk about the CalVet program and what it means to veterans. She is bringing two veterans: Marie is a World War II Navy Veteran and Bob is a Korean War Air Force veteran (are you listening, Lion 2VP Ross OLNEY).

Last week

We had pretty much nothing: no president, no first vice-president and no speaker. The riff raff did what we could, but it wasn't much. The jokes were even bad. Lion Lance LAFFOON did tell us quite a bit about bananas that we didn't know.

Next week

It is supposed to be Open. As the last meeting of the year, we should probably do some soul-searching about the future of the club and how we're going to earn some money this year to aid people. But, being Noontimers, we'll probably spend our time telling bad jokes and complaining.

Winners

Lion Lance LAFFOON has Free Fines (he deserves it.) Lion Otto SCHIMMEL is our

Greeter — he'll probably greet us as he does with all his clients and we'll answer back in kind. Lion Bedford PINKARD managed to make two meetings in a row and pocketed the magnificent sum of $5. Lion Chuck CONWAY can pocket a like sum should he manage to make his second meeting in a row. History isn't on his side. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Lance tried to make it into the Lance-show, but failed to capitalize on the opportunity to draw $212.50.

Installation

Our installation will be on Friday, July 15, at the Embassy Suites. Drinks at 6 PM, dinner at 7.

The Bored decided to pay for parking for all attendees. Bring your parking stub to the event.

Invite friends, relatives and others (Noontimers mostly have "others") to the event. It's more fun with more people.

Wounded Warriors

Lion IVP Tom CONTRERAS made contact with Fred Morgan from the Naval Battalion and they need help with three events:

Seabee Days 23-24 July: At Port Hueneme

- Boxing Event: assist with ring, gloves and the event. Saturday from 12-4 pm
- Karaoke Contest: Judging contestants
4 Volunteers needed

NBVC Surf Contest 20-21 August, At Point Mugu

- Registration
- BBQ

Wounded Warrior Half Marathon, September 17, At Point Mugu

- Unlimited Volunteers
- Aid Stations
- BBQ

We should be able to provide major help for them. It's a great program, a great recruiting opportunity for us and a chance to
