This week

No information. Your BE wasn't here last week and no one told him if we had a program or not. Lion IPP Dave TAPIE was kind enough to send pictures and it looks like Lion Byron WEDEMEYER might have said something to the group, but that's about the end of your BE's knowledge.

Last week

No one was scheduled. Did someone show up?

Next week

Hard to know.

Winners

Sorry, no one informed the BE.

Installation

It's tonight at the Embassy Suites. Drinks at 6 PM, dinner at 7. Lions PCC Bill Dunlevy and 2VDG Margaret Dunlevy will be the installing officers. Hopefully we will have some fun at the event and kick off Lion Ross OLNEY's year in proper style.

Perfect Attendance

When they found out your BE wasn't going to make last week's meeting, someone remarked that he'd lose his 29 years of perfect attendance.

No, he won't. If anyone misses a meeting he can make it up by performing another Lions function within 13 days, either before or after the meeting that was missed. Attending a regular meeting doesn't count, but something like writing the Bulletin, serving hot dogs at a Lions event or visiting another club. Obviously, your BE will save his perfect attendance by providing any of the Bulletins for meetings and he'll be at the Ventura Downtown Lions next week. If you'd like to have perfect attendance, all it takes is a bit of planning and thinking.
