Our Special Guests are neither guests, nor special. They are Lions 2VP Roman VAISMAN and T Tim TENOPIR and they will be talking about their "Vacation Adventure." If that seems sufficiently vague, it's all your BE received courtesy of Lion 1VP Jim (I'm gonna do it until I get it right) PLISKY.

We have rescheduled Otis Brantley, A 'Green' Building Contractor, who will be talking about green, contracting and how the two interact.

Unfortunately, your BE misplaced his notes and has no idea who won what. Hopefully, the Secretary (or the fill-in with the paperwork) has some clue or we are up the proverbial creek without the requisite propulsion mechanism.

We are making some progress. If you had checked in, you would have been reminded to show up here at the Courtyard and not at the Residence Inn where you went before coming here.

Last week

We had a bunch of dignitaries visiting us, headed by Lions DG Dick Kane, his wife Evelyn, 1VDG Tony Manuel, 2VPG Margaret Dunlevy, RC Barbara Penney, Dave Wheeler, Merleen Smith and PCC Bill Dunlevy. We had a wonderful time and special thanks to Lion C Andy STAY for donating several hundred dollars worth of cosmetics for Evelyn. She really appreciated it.

Vision Screening

This year, the Health Fair at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church will be on October 16. We will need a ton of help and there isn't a more exciting activity than watching someone who hasn't been able to see anything but blurs see clearly for the first time. Do yourself a favor and help out. We guarantee you will be moved.

Change of Venue

We are NOT be meeting here at the Residence Inn, but rather at the Courtyard (the old Hilton at the Esplanade). But if you are reading this at the meeting, you already figured this out. One wonders how many of us went to the old place first.

No Pictures

We are no recycling pictures in the Bulletin. Is there a Noontimer willing to perform this chore?
