This week

Today should be open as it is the last Friday of the month. We'll see.

Last week

County Sheriff, Geoff Dean, stopped by to talk about how the Sheriff's office services the county and those cities that contract with it.

Next week

No notification for upcoming speakers received yet. We'll post them as we get them.

Winners

Lion Barry BRAFF is our Greeter (any takers on him actually showing up to Greet us???) and Lion P Ross OLNEY has Free Fines. Lion Bedford PINKARD had his name called for the $5 Attendance

Prize. If he shows, he wins. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion 2VP Roman VAISMAN whiffed at $296.

Activities

If you look at our calendar, you'll notice that we have no activities of any kind planned other than the Bored Meeting. The Zone Student Speakers contest was held at Food Share where our speaker, Leo Albea, won, so he's going on to the Region contest.

But how about we volunteer to phone people for Food Share? We did that a couple of years ago and it helped them considerably.

Time to do it again? Anyone want to coordinate the job?

Elections

Our Election Committee and Chairman Lion IPP Jim PLISKY need to start working on candidates for office next year. We should publish the list of candidates in the second week of March, so we can publish the list for three meetings and vote before the April 15 deadline.

City of Hope

Our club has long been a supporter of City of Hope. Lion Irv TUCKER used to pass around the can every meeting before he died. Now Lion John FARRAR does it. Lion Irv has a permanent plaque along the rose walk at City of Hope. Every year, City of Hope hosts a Lions day where they thank Lions for their support. Busses from northern California will come laden with Lions. Noontimers haven't been regular attendees, but we should. Anyone want to go? Does the Bored want to make a donation?
