This week

So far, not program is scheduled. As your BE is heading to a convention and will be gone Thursday (yesterday) and Friday (today), there won't be any last-minute revisions to the schedule. Sorry, if we have a speaker.

Next week

More of the same. We have no speaker scheduled.

Last Week

We scheduled the election of officers for next week and didn't schedule a speaker at the same time. Good thing. It took us forever to elect our bored. First ballot, Lions D George THOMPSON and P Roman VAISMAN tied at seven votes each. Second ballot Lion Roman won 9 to 6.

VAISMAN rigged the raffle and Lion Bedford gets to do it again. Lion Dave TAPIE was drawn for Free Fines because Lion Roman missed his mark. Lion Bedford also pocketed the $30 Attendance Prize, so Lion Ryan ALTHOFF only missed $5 by not being here. The big news was that new Lion Bill GREEN refused to tithe any of his $619 in winnings in the Mad Marble Malarkey. For a moment, that looked pretty cheap. But when we got to Fines & Jokes, Lion Bill was plunking down $5 not to hear jokes. If anyone ponied up more he'd squash that, too. Toward the end, he paid $100 not to hear a joke. We set a record last week, raising $160 in fines — almost all from Lion Bill. It was way more fun than if he'd just tithed.
