This week

Hmm. Former Noon-timer Jim Bickel dropped by last week and said he'd come back today to be the program. Considering that Jim had about 4 programs the year he was Program Chairman, it is not guaranteed that he'll show. We'll see.

STAY didn't have a prayer of grabbing the $241 prize.

Bored Meeting

The Bored Meeting will be on Tuesday, January 28, at Lion C Andy STAY's house. In order to get Lion Andy to host, we had to guarantee that he wouldn't have to do anything. Hopefully, we are well enough organized that we can pull this very difficult task off.

Next week

Some Friday we should have a program for a change.

Last Week

It was an unscheduled open meeting, like usual.

Winners

Lion D Bedford PINKARD has Free Fines, while Lion D Dave TAPIE is our Greeter. Lion LT Dick MAGGIO pocketed his $20 Attendance Prize, so Lion Sig ASKVIK only missed $5 by not being there last week. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion C Andy

White Cane Daze

White Cane Days are scheduled for February 8-9 at the Vons on Victoria. All Noontimers should plan on participating. This is the week after the Super Bowl, so no one should have an excuse this year. Even if you do have an excuse, it'll cost you $65.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day falls on a Friday, February 14, this year, so that will be when we hold our annual Valen-this is a really nice event where we are on our best behavior (Noontimer translation: we aren't on GOOD behavior, just better than Noontimer-normal).

tine's Day Massacre. Bring wives, girlfriends, significant others or some WalMart shopper looking for a free meal to be entertained (assuming they are entertained by insults) by Noontimers. Traditionally,
