This week

Your BE thinks it is an open meeting. He's received no indication that we have a program.

Next week

We may have a program, but your BE doesn't know who. Lion IVP Timur TALUY said he'd posted a speaker to the Noontimer's Google Calendar, but while the meeting does show up on my calendar, there is no speaker showing.

Last Week

Former Noontimer Jim Bickel said he'd show up and do a program about Hurricane Sandy and the problems he's had rebuilding the family home in New Jersey. But as most of us figured, he didn't show.

Winners

Lion D Ross OLNEY has Free Fines, while Lion MC Patrick OROZCO is our Greeter. The Attendance

Prize was $10 for Noontimer #3, but because our Secretary wasn't here, no one knew who #3 is. If he was here last week and shows this week, he'll be $10 richer. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Otto SCHIMMEL attempted to enrich himself by $249.50 but was a dead duck, rather than a lucky stiff.

Bored Meeting

The Bored Meeting will be next Tuesday, January 28, at Lion C Andy STAY's house. Hopefully, Noontimers will do all the work so we don't wreck Lion Andy's back and get his wife, Flora mad as us.

White Cane Daze

White Cane Days are scheduled for February 8-9 at the Vons on Victoria. All Noontimers should plan on participating. This is the week after the Super Bowl, so no one should have an excuse this year. Even if you do have an excuse, it'll cost you $65.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day falls on a Friday, February 14, this year, so that will be when we hold our annual Valentine's Day Massacre.

Start inviting women: wives, girlfriends (both if you are daring); Hollywood starlets — in short, any female you have an in with. Our Treasurer, Tim TENOPIR, has been working overtime to make this a memorable event. Unfortunately, considering the state of our memories, that's not going to last long.
