Our Special Guest today is Alan Beattie, a Hollywood writer, director and producer. Brand new Noontimer, Lion Todd ADAMS invited him to speak. Nice start, Lion Todd.

Next week

There won't be a next week. That is, we will have the Christmas Party next Friday evening, but we won't hold a meeting at lunch. No one wants to see that much of Noontimers. The Bored hasn't taken up what days we might be dark during the holidays, but it would seem likely that we won't meet on December 26, but probably will on January 2. This Bulletin isn't official, so figure out how to get the real information if we don't meet again before the event.

Last Week

Lion DG Joe HOHENWARTER made his last club visitation to us last Friday. Despite the fact we weren't supposed to have a speaker, Mike Ramirez from PAL still made a plea for help. The guy that runs Santa to the Sea run asked for PAL's help to set up the vendors area. Since Mike's Toy dinner is that same night 12/13/14, PAL is short handed and needs help to send to Santa to the Sea. Santa to the Sea donates $1,500 to PAL for toys.

We need one or two more workers tomorrow. Any helpers?

Lion D Pat RIGGS has Free Fines, so we might get lucky and receive free transmissions (Lion Ross handed out three free books last week, so why not?) Lion LT Dick MAGGIO is our Greeter, so he'll probably inquire about your Party Plans while greeting you. Lion Byron WEDEMEYER was here when his name was called, so he'll be a whopping $5 richer if he shows today. It would have been more than $5, but that slacker, Lion Carlos MARTINEZ actually showed up two weeks in a row and took his $10 home. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Will BERG tried to pilfer $425, but blue it.

Christmas Party

Next week is the Christmas Party — December 19, here at the Residence Inn from 5:30 to whenever. This will be a great event as long as we all invite tons of people to celebrate with us. If you haven't already told Lion LT Dick MAGGIO what raffle prizes you are bringing, please do so. He needs to make up the bid sheets. Also, you can bring them to the meeting today. If absolutely necessary, you can phone Lion Dick and let him know what you are bringing, but that puts extra work on the committee and you will be on the committee next year in retaliation.
