This week

Lion MC Bill GREEN has invited someone from the Navy Base to come talk, but your BE is going out of town and no one has yet communicated a name or title. So, whomever you are, welcome to the Noon-timers where we do very little that's politically correct and even less that's polite. But we have fun.

Next week

Supervisor John Flynn is scheduled to speak.

Last Week

Mike McManus, Veteran Services Officer with the County of Ventura, told us about all the programs Ventura Veteran Services have available, how the process works and why all vets should register for disability even if they know they'll be rejected. It gets you into the system in case some delayed issues arise. Good to know. Excellent program.

Winners

Lion Todd ADAMS has Free Fines, which will probably cost us. He buys a gazillion tickets every week, so he would have probably paid for his winnings. Lion 2VP Kalani JOSE is our Greeter. Lion D Ross OLNEY had his number called for the Attendance Prize. Should he show today, he'll be $30 richer. In the Mad Marble Malarkey Lion MC Bill GREEN attempted to claim the $736 prize but was shot down by Lion Carlos MARTINEZ’

 “LLLOOOZZZEEERRR.”

Channel Islands Lions Event

Lions Valerie Feland and Stella Batey from Channel Islands Lions Club dropped by to talk about their Casino Night on April 26. This is a great event. Several Noontimers have attended over the years. They have a poker tournament, dancing, an excellent tri-tip dinner and lots of really outstanding raffle prizes. In past years, they have raffled off a helicopter tour of Ventura County, tickets to Disneyland and a bunch of other outstanding stuff. Please plan on attending. It’s $30 per person or $50 for two.

Apparently, last week’s nomination of Lion Andy STAY as 2VP was invalid because nominations on the day of the election are not allowed in our bylaws.

Considering that the Noontimers have no event of any kind planned for the next 4 months, we should all probably jump on this one.

Next Year’s Officers.
