This week

Apparently, as this is probably not only the last meeting of the month, but also the last meeting of the calendar year, it appears to be open. If not, no one told the Bulletin Editor.

Next week

There won't be a Noon-timer meeting next Friday. We will convene for the Christmas party that evening instead.

In fact, our Bored hasn't made it official, but it is doubtful that we will have meetings on Christmas or New Years, so today may well be the last meeting of the year. We should probably decide today.

Last Week

Returning former Noontimer, Kirk Prouse, decided to revisit his old club. He's president of ASR Construction and talked about all the things we should do to protect ourselves from El Niño. High on the list are (1) get flood insurance (not included in standard homeowners insurance policies), (2) check drainage in yards to make sure water will drain off property and (3) check roof (if you can find a roofer with time in his schedule) for leaks or issues. Who knew a former Noontimer could impart useful information?

Winners

Lion D Ross OLNEY has Free Fines, while Lion LT Dick MAGGIO is our Greeter. Lion Sig ASKVIK wasn't here to qualify for the $5 Attendance Prize, so he won't get anything even if he does show today.

Today we'll draw for $10, and if the winner is here today, he'll have to make the next meeting on January 8 to win. In the Mad Marble Marlarkey, Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS was unable to get the right marble to win $166. Lion Carlos MARTINEZ was threatened with a date with Lion Todd's pistol if he shouted "LLLooozzzeeerrr" but Lion Carlos isn't afraid. He jinxed him anyway.

Christmas Parade

Congratulations to Lions D Bedford PINKARD and Barry BRAFF. They made it through the parade. We have the pictures to show it.

Christmas Party

Next Friday is our annual Christmas Party right here at the Residence Inn, starting at 5:30. We will be in the Augusta Room. Entertainment, silent auction and fun all around. Donations are now fully tax deductible, courtesy of our new Foundation. Noontimers are free. Price for guests will be $50. Hopefully that will cover expenses.

Invite dozens and give your meal orders to Lion LT Dick MAGGIO.

Also, we are short of raffle prizes. Take a look around and see what you can offer. Let's make this the most successful Christmas party ever.

White Cane Daze

We made $950 from White Cane Daze, not counting those who have to pay $65 for not helping out. Compare that with the $993 we got for the Airshow. We should do several WCD's every year and no Airshows. It's easier money.
