This week

Your BE has absolutely no idea of any guest speakers for the foreseeable future. If anyone has scheduled speakers, it would be helpful to forward such information to the Bulletin Editor so we can welcome our guests properly.

If you are a speaker for today, we sincerely apologize. Our only excuse is that we are Noontimers and disorganized is our natural state.

Next week

Please see above.

But, as he's a Noontimer, that's pretty much to be expected. And it made for an entertaining program.

Winners

Lion 1VP Todd ADAMS has Free Fines, while Lion Lois Zsarnay is our Greeter, should she decide to revisit us today. Otherwise, we will all be ungreeted. Lion Todd REHANEK's name was drawn for the Attendance Prize, but alas, he wasn't here. In the Mad Marble Malarkey, Lion Dave TAPIE attempted to glom onto the $161 kitty, but Lion Carlos MARTINEZ still has the magic incantation.

Last Week

We had a program, sort of. Our something less than illustrious president, Lion Kalani JOSE, talked about attending the International Convention. From what he said, it was clear he had a good time, but not so clear what, if anything, he learned. Perhaps he imbibed a few too much umbrella-laden refreshment.

Activities Needed

Maybe our Installation will be sometime in August at some location. It is all in the hands of our tropical drink guzzler, Lion P Kalani JOSE. We have to wait until he sobers up.

With the diligence required to actually plan an event, it is easy to understand that we have nothing planned for the future. Lion TT Jim PLISKY does have a date in October for White Cane Daze, but really??? Is that it?

Our motto is: "We Serve." When? Once a decade?

Fortunately, Lion D Ross OLNEY took a dozen pictures so we can replace real news with extra pictures.
